

City of Janesville 2020 Crime Summary

Officers assigned to the patrol division provide a wide range of basic police services to the community. In addition to patrolling assigned areas, officers investigate criminal offenses, civil offenses and traffic crashes; enforce traffic laws, state statutes, and city ordinances; serve subpoenas, warrants, and summonses; and respond to a wide variety of calls for service.

In 2020, there was a 14% decrease from 2019 in overall documented officer activity. This significant decrease is partially due to COVID-19. With many people working from home and schools closed, there was less traffic in the City, with less traffic enforcement, accidents, operating while Intoxicated incidents and parking complaints. Business checks were down as many businesses were closed during periods of time. Fireworks complaints increased 79%.
